The castle was built during medieval years in the city of Novobërda, at 42.61778 meters latitude. It was regarded as one of the richest cities in Balkans because of its natural resources, and consequently was often called as “the city of silver and gold”. The castle was built on top of a dead volcano crater, whose ruins can still be noticed these days. The miracles of Letnica's Church of the Black Madonna The Letnica Church is the home to one of three "Black Madonna" in Europe and the place where Mother Theresa received her calling to serve as a nun. In 1917, 7-year-old Agnesa Bojaxhiu was visiting Letnica from her home in nearby Skopje, as she did every year with her family. She became known as Mother Teresa, whose work with the poor in Calcutta brought her international fame. She died in 1997. Pope John Paul II beatified her — the first step to sainthood — during his Golden Jubilee celebration. Services: Internal transport according to the Itinerary, lunch, English speaking guide.
